

Trip program to Paris for the pre - congress : May 15th to 16th 2017

Day 1 : Monday, May 15th

09:00 : Departure from the hotel by foot

09:15 : Walking guided tour of "St Germain des Près" on the theme of gastronomy

12:15 : Boat cruise lunch on the Seine

15:00 : Return to the hotel, free time

15:30 : Departure from the hotel by the subway

16:00 : Free time in Montmartre

19:30 : Diner in a Montmartre's restaurant.

21:00 : Show at the Cabaret "Le Lapin agile"

23:00 : Return to the hotel by bus

Day 2 : Tuesday, May 16th

09:30 : Departure from the hotel by foot

10:00 : Orsay Museum guided tour

12:00 : Lunch in a typical Parisian brasserie

13:30 : Walking guided tour of the Marais : " Places of exceptions, French art of living and craftsmanship"

16:30 : return to the hotel

Free evening

Day 3 : Wednesday, May 17th

08:00 : Breakfast

09:30 : Return to Lille by bus

12:30 : Free time for lunch in Lille

ACTIVITIES

Thematic visits of Paris

The two visits underneath are assured by professional guides, all from an initial guide speaker formation. They are all perfectly bilingual in the language asked. The guides are well qualified, dynamics, all formed on the quality, the state of mind and the addresses chosen with precision. The places and shops are chosen by their nice hospitality, their friendliness and originality.

With those visits, it is a guarantee to have an excellent time of recreation with your teams and guests.

1. Walking guided tour “The Marais : Places of exceptions, French art of living and raftsmanship”

The Marais’ architecture and history is highly marked by the Kings and the Great Ladies of France. We propose you to discover the district by making some enjoyable stops in shops, that were chosen thanks to their originality or their unique style. In the program : tea shops, ready-made clothes shops “chic and organic”, Golden age facades, handcrafts creations ...

It is the pleasure to let you discover this wonderful district, its nice addresses and its talents in an original and ludic way.

2. Walking guided tour “St Germain-des-Prés around the gastronomy”

Saint-Germain-des-Prés and its mythical cafés, stories, cult places, magnificent Palace and its unusual buildings: houses with pulleys, house wells, charming courtyards... Here is what we propose you to discover by making some enjoyable stops in shops, all about gastronomy and where the craftsmanship and the particularities are told by your guide or the shop manager himself.

3. Guided tour in Montmartre

Accompanied by your guide, discover the place where some of the great French and international artists have lived. Enjoy the small flowered alleys and some unknown places where the authenticity is still untouched. Don't miss the basilica of Sacré-Coeur situated on the top of the mound where you could admire an overview of Paris. The painters from the Tertre place or the shopping district of the Abbesses.

4. Show at the Cabaret "Le Lapin Agile"

Today, true national conservatoire of the french music, this cabaret exist till 1860. Discover the atmosphere of the old Montmartre throughout a show with artists like poets, comedians, composing authors, instrumentalists, virtuosos, humorists or singers. Admire one of the famous artists meeting place of the beginning of the 20th century : Pablo Picasso, Max Jacob, Roland Dorgelès, Francis Carco, Blaise Cendrars or Pierre Mac Orlan.

5. Lunch cruise on the Seine

Start the cruise from the Tower Eiffel to discover from the Seine : the National Assembly, the fashion city, the Concorde Place or the Statue of Liberty. Enjoy those two hours of ride to observe the splendour of the banks and the Parisian monuments. The large windows offers you an exceptional view of Paris. Add to this great moment an elegant lunch from the french gastronomy accompanied with its friendly atmosphere with artists who punctuate the cruise with the sounds of french melodies.

6. Orsay Museum guided tour

The Orsay museum is known from all around the world for its rich collection of impressionist art. Throughout a guided tour, explore this old train station with the look of a Palace and admire the different paintings, architectures, sculptures, decorative arts and photographs. You'll find some famous artists, such as : Claude Monet, Édouard Manet, Auguste Renoir, Camille Claudel, Paul Gauguin or Alfred Sisley.

7. Lunch and dinner in a typical Parisian brasserie

Have lunch and dinner in the atmosphere of the Parisian brasseries. To the menu, a traditional and qualitative french cuisine that propose some typical dishes, such as : onion soup, blanquette or pot-au-feu. Have a pleasant moment between character and tradition, in a brasserie that was in its first use a manufacturing beer place.

PRICES

	TTC price per person
3 nights double room 3*	1 089 €
3 nights single room 3*	1 194 €
2 nights double room 3*	949 €
2 nights single room 3*	1 014 €

Price includes :

- accommodation with breakfast and tourist tax
- catering (2 lunches + 1 dinner with drinks)
- activities according to the trip program (Monday 15th and tuesday 16th)
- transport in subway + bus for the Cabaret night's return on Monday 15th + transport Paris - Lille Wednesday 17th

Price does not include :

- insurance and assistance repatriation and cancellation
- transport to the hotel
- individual purchases
- extra drinks